

Oh Lila Newsletter

Newsletter 1 # October 2014

Welcome....

To the first ever Oh Lila newsletter.

Oh Lila has had an amazing 2014 with the launch of the new Oh Lila website, the Oh Lila film and new resources added to the resource pack.

There are already 344 registered nurseries from across Scotland on the new website and that number is certain to grow as we welcome colleagues in Inverclyde, West Dunbartonshire, Inverclyde, Renfrewshire and West Lothian to the network.

The newsletter will be produced every 6 months and aims to keep members up to date with the latest Oh Lila

What's new?

>> New pack additions

Some new additions to the Oh Lila pack, most notably an Eric the squirrel puppet. Visit the resources page of the website to find out how you can purchase an Eric puppet.

>> Web additions

Additional resources are available to download including the new Oh Lila short film.

There are also some interactive resources such as the Topic Tree and Oh Lila posters and activity books available to download to engage with parents and families

>> Training and Web Links

Training hand outs are now available to download and links to research and policy which were discussed at training have also been added. If you would like to see anything added to this section let us know...

>> Rory good practice examples

Check out the 'best practice' area of the website to see some best practice examples of how Oh Lila is used in other nurseries.

>> Introducing

Oh Lila Achievement Awards

We are delighted to announce the introduction of the Oh Lila Achievement Awards.

For nurseries and family learning centres using the Oh Lila resource pack you can now gain certificates of achievement by sharing lesson plans, photographs or videos or asking us along to visit your nursery and show us what you have been doing.

There are 3 levels of award available; Bronze star, Silver Star and Gold star.

To find out more information about how your nursery can gain certificates of achievement visit and download the guidelines.
